

C.I.E.H. Level 2 Award in Food Safety for Caterers (formerly the Basic Food Hygiene course)

REPEAT OF POPULAR COURSE

This revised course meets the requirements of the new National Award Scheme as decided by the Skills Sector Council.

Monday 23 June 2008, 9.30 am to 4.30 pm

To be held in the EAVS Annexe, 8 Saffrons Road (entrance in Old Orchard Road), Eastbourne, BN21 1DG. A map showing this location can be found on our website.

On successful completion of the multiple choice question paper at the end of the course, the C.I.E.H. Level 2 Award in Food Safety for Caterers will be awarded. This Certificate is a necessary requirement for anyone who handles open, high risk food. It is recommended that this training is undertaken every 3 years. The syllabus covers:

- Food Poisoning & Food Poisoning Trends
- Bacteriology and the Requirements for the Proliferation of Food Poisoning and Food Spoilage Bacteria
- Safe Preparation, Storage, Cooking and Service of Food
- Temperature Control
- Personal Hygiene
- Pest Control
- Premises Requirements
- Cleaning and Disinfection
- Requirements of the Law

This course will be delivered by Christine Campbell or Michael Hills from Hills Associates. They are both approved tutors to deliver all levels of Food Hygiene and Health and Safety Training that are examined by the C.I.E.H. and have between them nearly 50 years' experience of working in Environmental Health.

Tea and coffee will be provided during the course and there will be a break for lunch (meal not included).

Cost of course: £50 for Voluntary / Community groups
£65 others
